

Writing Hong Kong post-1997

A Roundtable at City University, Hong Kong

14 September 2016, 11:00-18:15
M8061 CMC Building

This one-day event will focus on the development of Hong Kong literature and culture over the past twenty years. Speakers will lead discussions on topics such as Hong Kong film, comics and graphic narratives, the intersections between local and non-local Hong Kong writers, and the development of Hong Kong's literary scene. The event will also feature readings and talks by creative writers.

Discussions will follow a roundtable format that is intended to allow scholars and writers an opportunity to share ideas and respond to key issues. Contributors will have their works featured in a special issue of Wasafiri: The Magazine of International Contemporary Writing to be published in 2017.

Invited speakers include Dr. Tammy Ho Lai-Ming (HKBU), Dr. Vivian Lee (City U), Dr. Grant Hamilton (CUHK), Dr. David Huddart (CUHK), Dr. Dorothy Tse (HKBU), Dr. Jeffrey Mather (City U), Dr. Florian Stadler (University of Exeter), Ms. Xu Xi, Mr. Denis Wong, Mr. Nicholas Wong.

The event is free and open to all. Lunch will be included.

For further information, please contact Ms. Quentin Lu (qiantlu2-c@cityu.edu.hk) or Dr Jeffrey Mather (jlmather@cityu.edu.hk)

The event is supported by the Department of English, City University of Hong Kong

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH
CITY UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

